Lake-a-Palooza! Music Festival

at the Bath House Cultural Center

When: Saturday, April 28, 1-8pm
Where: Bath House Cultural Center on White Rock Lake
521 E. Lawther Dr., Dallas, TX 75218

Admission: FREE!

Who: Music lovers, families, lovers of the lake and its natural beauty
Why: The Bath House Cultural Center has long stood for arts in East Dallas. Along with its support for local and regional theatrical performances and art exhibitions, promoting great local music is a primary focus of the BHCC.

The Bath House is collaborating with the Texas Musicians Museum in Irving to stage a wide variety of musicians while loaning the Bath House some of their rare Texas Musicians memorabilia for the event.

What's there to Do?

- Free Live Music – multiple stages
- Food, Beer and Wine for sale
- Free Children's and Family Activities
- Free Music-focused Curated Art Exhibition
- Community Organizations
- Little D Markets

Lake-a-Palooza is produced by The Friends of the Bath House for the benefit of the Bath House Cultural Center.

About the Bath House and Friends of the Bath House:

The Bath House Cultural Center brings over 32,000 visitors to shores of White Rock Lake every year. This historically designated building is entering its 36th year as the first facility of the Office of Cultural Affairs, a department within the City of Dallas. The mission of the Bath House is to foster the growth, development, and quality of multicultural arts within the city of Dallas by emphasizing innovative visual and performing arts as well as other multidisciplinary arts events. The Friends of the Bath House Cultural Center is a non-for-profit 501c3 organization whose mission is: "Through advocacy, fundraising and individual commitment, the Friends of the Bath House Cultural Center encourages the flourishing of the Bath House while enriching the visitor experience."
